

Shushan Blues

Music and Lyrics by Lisa Levine and Lynn Metrik

Chorus:

We've got the Shushan Blues all over town
We've heard about a wicked man and now we're down
He wants to kill the Jews this mean, Haman dude,
So join us as we sing we've got the Shushan Blues

Verse 1:

Now as the story goes out on the street
Old Haman ordered everyone to bow at his feet
When Mordecai refused Haman turned bright red
And vowed he'd get revenge cause he'd see all of us dead!

Chorus:

Verse 2:

Now we were all afraid that our time was up
So we sent the word to Mordecai and wished him luck
You've got to get the queen to do all that she can
To tell the King of Haman's plot and STOP that man!

Chorus:

Verse 3:

Queen Esther told the King and much to her surprise
He said "don't fret my dear he'll pay for all of his lies
He's gonna curse the day he started this thing
'Cause bright and in early in the morning he's gonna swing!

Final Chorus:

We've kicked the Shushan Blues right out of town
We'll drown out Haman's name forever the world round
We'll dance and sing a tune of a different kind
As we celebrate our day of freedom for all time
As we celebrate our day of freedom for all time!!
